PAR

5.2.b Scope of the project:

- Distinct identity is not justified in the scope of the PAR. The scope is lacking the distinguishing characteristic of length. Suggest the following additions (or similar) to the scope:
 - Specify additions to and appropriate modifications of IEEE Std 802.3 to add 100 Mb/s Physical Layer (PHY) specifications and management parameters for operation, and associated optional provision of power, using a single balanced pair of conductors longer than 40 m [up to 500 m].
