

DINNER SOCIAL Wednesday, March 23rd, 2016

Atlanta History Center

Located on 33 acres in the heart of historic Buckhead, the Atlanta History Center houses two museums, six historic gardens, two historic houses and the Kenan Research Center. Spend time before dinner enjoying the current permanent exhibits in one of the largest history museums in the nation: the History of Bobby Jones, Olympic History and the Civil War along with other temporary exhibits such as Native Lands and Stars Fall on Atlanta.

Actors in period costumes will entertain you with music and tales of times gone by. A buffet dinner will be served in the Grand Overlook Ballroom, one of the most beautiful ballrooms in Atlanta, overlooking an illuminated garden. After dinner, you are welcome to continue your tour through the museum. Cash bar available and credit cards are accepted.
