KEY LOCATIONS

Larimer Square

Union Station & LoDo

Larimer Square

Larimer Square is an area as rich in history as it is in fine shopping and dining. As the Mile High City's oldest and most historic block, its buildings tell vividly the story of the birth and early years of Denver .

While near the LoDo area, we are proud to be designated as our own unique district—with a variety of fine dining establishments (see full list below). For your group, we'd suggest motorcoaches departing the hotel at various times with a central drop off/pick up location.
